Championnats nationaux de chimie et de physique Victimes de discrimination linguistique, Boucher et Caron retestés en français

QUÉBEC — Les Québécois Vincent Boucher et Dave Caron, du Collège Mérici, ont bel et bien été victimes de discrimination linguistique lors des récents championnats nationaux de chimie et de physique, statue le Commissaire aux langues officielles du Canada, M. Victor Goldbloom. Les deux élèves doivent par conséquent être retestés en français en vue des prochaines Olympiades internationales, recommande M. Goldbloom du même souffle.

recherche en sciences humaines et en génie que M. Goldbloom a adressé sa recommandation de retester les deux francophones dans leur langue. Mais il a surtout insisté pour que pareille discrimination ne se reproduise jamais plus dans les années à venir.

LE SOLEIL

Ce qui précipite les « coupables » canadiens dans une impitoyable course contre la montre, puisque les olympiades en question commencent dès dimanche, en Italie; et que quatre jeunes Canadiens anglophones ont déjà leur billet d'avion en poche.

La décision de M. Goldbloom a été rendue publique hier. Il a été alors impossible de savoir de la part des responsables canadiens des championnats scolaires de chimie et de physique s'ils arriveraient à pouvoir retester les deux francophones en temps, et comment ils s'y prendraient exactement.

« Chose certaine, a spontanément déclaré Vincent Boucher au SOLEIL, ça va être un jeu d'enfants de me qualifier dans ma langue. A moins bien sûr qu'on décide de hausser indûment les standards. »

C'est le directeur du Collège Mérici, M. Maurice Carrier, qui avait déposé la plainte de discrimination auprès du Commissaire aux langues officielles. Elle s'appuyait sur le fait que Boucher et Caron avaient dû participer à un camp de sélection unilingue an-roulé du 22 au 30 mai. Et il dégringolait au 12e rang du même contingent, à la suite d'une série d'exposés et d'exams présentés exclusivement en anglais. Dave Caron chutait pour sa part du 13e au dernier rang.

C'est au Conseil national de la

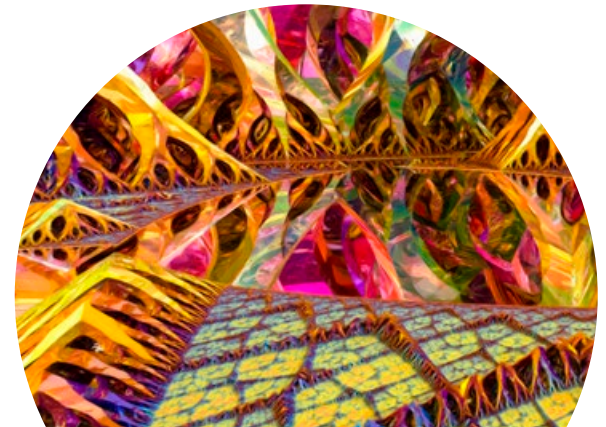

Les quatre Canadiens qui avaient été sélectionnés avant la plainte retenue par M. Goldbloom sont Michael Hawkes, de Red Deer, Alberta; l'autre albertain Cyrus Master, de Calgary; Arvind Govindarajan, de Scarborough, Ontario; et Andras Pattantyus, de Beaconsfield, P.Q.
